

Sounds Like Sunday Music Series

May 19 from 11 AM - 1:30 PM

James Adams

James Adams, a talented singer/songwriter from Red Deer, Alberta, has spent over a decade captivating audiences across Central Alberta with his distinctive blend of original compositions and heartfelt covers. James' music, an auditory mirror of his experiences, connects deeply with listeners from all walks of life. Having performed across various stages from British Columbia to Saskatchewan, James stands on the cusp of a significant milestone - the release of his debut EP. This highly anticipated collection is set to encapsulate a decade of musical journey and present his authentic and compelling storytelling prowess to the world. As James readies to make his indelible mark on the music scene, James is indeed an artist to watch.

