

Sounds Like Sunday Music Series

September 15 from 11 AM - 1:30 PM

Central Alberta Chamber Orchestra

Make your tea and some scones and bring them to Canada 150 Square. It's tea time and the CACO Winds will provide the proper setting with the best of British music for winds and percussion. Listen to Gustav Holst's First Suite in Eb, Ralph Vaughan Williams' Sea Songs, and many more classics, plus some Phantom of the Opera (Andrew Lloyd Weber is British) and some Elton John (also British). There's something for everyone to love and what better way to spend some time on a Sunday than to enjoy tea and crumpets with some proper British wind ensemble music!
